

Public Schools of Plainfield

*Emerson Community School
305 Emerson Avenue
Plainfield, New Jersey 07062
Dr. Frank Asante, Principal*

January 13, 2020

Frank Asante grew up in the city of Newark, NJ, as the middle child of Ghanaian parents. He was educated through the Newark Public School System and graduated from Science High School in 1985.

Frank furthered his education at Richard Stockton University, where he received his bachelor's degree in the Social and Behavioral Sciences. He later earned a master's degree in Educational Administration and Supervision from Cambridge College in Massachusetts. Frank Asante completed his educational journey by completing his doctoral studies in Educational Supervision and Management at Seton Hall University in December of 2013.

Frank began his professional career in Plainfield, NJ in 1993 as a fifth grade teacher at Charles H. Stillman Elementary School. He remained there until 2005 where he joined the administrative ranks at Evergreen Elementary School as a Vice-Principal under the tutelage of Mrs. Gloria Williams. In 2006, he was transferred to Cedarbrook Elementary School to serve as interim principal, and became the official principal in the spring of 2007. He spent close to 5 years at Cedarbrook, facilitating the school's transition to a K-8 center. In August of 2011, Dr. Asante was transferred to Emerson Community School where he is currently the proud principal.

On a daily basis, Dr. Asante looks forward to working with the staff, parents and students of the Emerson School Community to provide a rewarding educational environment full of resources and opportunity.

"We Educate, We Empower, We Inspire!"

908-731-4201 • FAX: 908-731-4206
www.plainfieldnj12.org